Note 1. Significant accounting policies

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are set out either in the respective notes or below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

New or amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations adopted

Any new or amended Accounting Standards or Interpretations that are not yet mandatory have not been early adopted.

The Company has adopted all of the new or amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board ('AASB') that are mandatory for the current reporting period. The adoption of these Accounting Standards and Interpretations did not have a significant impact on the financial performance or position of the Company.

Going concern

The financial report has been prepared on a going concern basis. This contemplates continuity of normal business activities and the realisation of assets and settlement of liabilities in the ordinary course of business.

The Company had a net working capital deficiency, being current assets less current liabilities, as at 30 June 2023 of $1,010,341 (2022: surplus of $605,293) and for the year ended 30 June 2023 the Company recorded a loss after tax of $1,340,460 (2022: $3,143,905) and cash outflows from operations of $401,150 (2022: $2,811,545).

The Directors have considered the position and performance of the Company and based on the following, consider the going concern basis to be appropriate for preparation of the financial report:

- As at 30 June 2023, the Company held $7,369,288 (2022: $7,410,442) of other financial assets, classified as non-current assets, which are readily convertible to cash; and
- As at 30 June 2023, the Company had net assets of $19,366,393 (2022: $20,706,853).

Basis of preparation

These general purpose financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Australian Accounting Standards - Simplified Disclosures issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board ('AASB') and the Corporations Act 2001, as appropriate for not-for-profit oriented entities.

Historical cost convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Critical accounting estimates

The preparation of the financial statements requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements, are disclosed in note 2.

The financial statements are presented in Australian dollars, which is OC Connections Limited's functional and presentation currency.

Income tax

OC Connections is endorsed by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) as an Income Tax Exempt Charitable Entity under subdivision 50-B of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997. No income tax is payable by OC Connections as Section 23 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 exempts charitable institutions from income tax.

Current and non-current classification

Assets and liabilities are presented in the statement of financial position based on current and non-current classification.

An asset is classified as current when: it is either expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in the Company's normal operating cycle; it is held primarily for the purpose of trading; it is expected to be realised within 12 months after the reporting period; or the asset is cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period. All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is classified as current when: it is either expected to be settled in the Company's normal operating cycle; it is held primarily for the purpose of trading; it is due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting period; or there is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period. All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

Impairment of financial assets

The Company recognises a loss allowance for expected credit losses on financial assets which are either measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income. The measurement of the loss allowance depends upon the Company's assessment at the end of each reporting period as to whether the financial instrument's credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, based on reasonable and supportable information that is available, without undue cost or effort to obtain.

Where there has not been a significant increase in exposure to credit risk since initial recognition, a 12-month expected credit loss allowance is estimated. This represents a portion of the asset's lifetime expected credit losses that is attributable to a default event that is possible within the next 12 months. Where a financial asset has become credit impaired or where it is determined that credit risk has increased significantly, the loss allowance is based on the asset's lifetime expected credit losses. The amount of expected credit loss recognised is measured on the basis of the probability weighted present value of anticipated cash shortfalls over the life of the instrument discounted at the original effective interest rate.

For financial assets mandatorily measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, the loss allowance is recognised in other comprehensive income with a corresponding expense through profit or loss. In all other cases, the loss allowance reduces the asset's carrying value with a corresponding expense through profit or loss.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount.

Recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value-in-use. The value-in-use is the present value of the estimated future cash flows relating to the asset using a pre-tax discount rate specific to the asset or cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. Assets that do not have independent cash flows are grouped together to form a cash-generating unit.

Finance costs

Finance costs attributable to qualifying assets are capitalised as part of the asset. All other finance costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

Goods and Services Tax ('GST') and other similar taxes

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of associated GST, unless the GST incurred is not recoverable from the tax authority. In this case it is recognised as part of the cost of the acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense.

Receivables and payables are stated inclusive of the amount of GST receivable or payable. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the tax authority is included in other receivables or other payables in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows are presented on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing or financing activities which are recoverable from, or payable to the tax authority, are presented as operating cash flows.

Commitments and contingencies are disclosed net of the amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the tax authority.

Note 2. Critical accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts in the financial statements. Management continually evaluates its judgements and estimates in relation to assets, liabilities, contingent liabilities, revenue and expenses. Management bases its judgements, estimates and assumptions on historical experience and on other various factors, including expectations of future events, management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. The resulting accounting judgements and estimates will seldom equal the related actual results. The judgements, estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities (refer to the respective notes) within the next financial year are discussed below.

Estimation of useful lives of assets

The Company determines the estimated useful lives and related depreciation and amortisation charges for its property, plant and equipment and finite life intangible assets. The useful lives could change significantly as a result of technical innovations or some other event. The depreciation and amortisation charge will increase where the useful lives are less than previously estimated lives, or technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold will be written off or written down.

Impairment of non-financial assets other than goodwill and other indefinite life intangible assets

The Company assesses impairment of non-financial assets other than goodwill and other indefinite life intangible assets at each reporting date by evaluating conditions specific to the Company and to the particular asset that may lead to impairment. If an impairment trigger exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is determined. This involves fair value less costs of disposal or value-in-use calculations, which incorporate a number of key estimates and assumptions.

Employee benefits provision

As discussed in note 1, the liability for employee benefits expected to be settled more than 12 months from the reporting date are recognised and measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows to be made in respect of all employees at the reporting date. In determining the present value of the liability, estimates of attrition rates and pay increases through promotion and inflation have been taken into account.

Note 3. Restatement of comparatives

During the 2023 financial year the Company identified approximately $0.4m of employee related costs incurred prior to the 2023 financial year, which were not reflected in comparative financial statements. Although the amount is not material the Company felt that it was prudent to adjust historical balances to incorporate these costs in their respective financial years. Accordingly the comparative financial information presented in these financial statements has been amended to incorporate these costs in the financial year in which they were incurred. The impact is not material from a financial reporting perspective.

Note 4. Revenue

	2023	2022
	$	$
Government grants and subsidies - federal and state	1,850,687	1,927,809
Sales income	1,255,827	744,263

	21,406,768	18,239,982

Revenue recognition policy for revenue from contracts with customers (AASB 15)

AASB 15 requires revenue to be recognised when control of a promised good or service is passed to the customer at an amount which reflects the expected consideration.

Generally, the timing of the payment for sale of goods and rendering of services corresponds closely to the timing of satisfaction of the performance obligations, however where there is a difference, it will result in the recognition of a receivable, contract asset or contract liability.

None of the revenue streams of OC Connections have any significant financing terms as there is less than 12 months between receipts of funds and satisfaction of performance obligations.

Sales income - OCC Enterprises activities

Revenue from the sale of goods in the course of ordinary activities is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns, trade discounts and volume rebates. Revenue is recognised when persuasive evidence exists, usually in the form of an executed sales agreement, that the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the customer, recovery of the consideration is probable, the associated costs and possible return of goods can be estimated reliably, there is no continuing management involvement with the goods, and the amount of revenue can be measured reliably. If it is probable that discounts will be granted and the amount can be measured reliably, then the discount is recognised as a reduction of revenue as the sales are recognised.

Services

Revenue from services rendered is recognised in the Statement of Profit or Loss and Other Comprehensive Income when the service is rendered.

Government grants and subsidies

Revenue arising from an agreement which contains enforceable and sufficiently specific performance obligations is recognised when control of each performance obligation is satisfied. This is generally the case for the monies received from Federal and State government and NDIA.

Revenue from government grants and subsidies received for sufficiently specific purposes is recognised only to the extent that monies have been expended in accordance with the funding agreement. Where the terms of that agreement stipulate that any unexpected funds may be required to be returned to the funding body, the unexpended funds are carried forward as "contract liabilities". Grants that compensate OC Connections for the cost of an asset are recognised in the Statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income on receipt of those funds.

Nature and timing of satisfaction of performance obligations

The following table provides information about the nature and timing of the satisfaction of performance obligation in contracts with customers, including significant payment terms and the related revenue recognition policies.

Revenue streams	Nature and timing of satisfaction of performance obligations
Government grants and subsidies - Federal and State	Revenue is recognised over time based on the consideration specified in contracts with participants. OC Connections recognises revenue as the services are provided to the participants and performance obligations are fulfilled.
Revenue from rendering of services - NDIA	Revenue is recognised over time based on the consideration specified in contracts with participants for each activity. OC Connections recognises revenue as the services are provided to the participants. In the event of OC Connections have costs incurred but not invoiced to the funder as a consequence of delays in the finalisation of participants' NDIS plans, for existing participants whom have had the services provided, the revenue receivables are presented as unbilled receivables in the trade and other receivables.
Revenue from rendering of services - other sources	This revenue stream comprises various other services. Revenue is recognised in line with AASB 15 as the services are provided to the customers over a period of time and as performance obligations are satisfied.
Sales income	Sales income is recognised when the products or services are provided, at a point in time.

Disaggregation of revenue

The disaggregation of revenue from contracts with customers is as follows:

	$	$
Timing of revenue recognition
Sales income at a point in time	1,255,827	744,263

Revenue recognition policy for revenue streams which are either not enforceable or do not have sufficiently specific performance obligations (AASB 1058)

Assets arising from grants in the scope of AASB 1058 are recognised at their fair value when the asset is received. These assets are generally cash but maybe property which has been donated or sold to OC Connections at significantly below fair value.

When assets are received from an appeal, donation, fundraising event or bequest, OC Connections recognises an asset and corresponding revenue is recognised when OC Connections gains control of such assets and the value of the asset can be reliably measured.

JobKeeper income

JobKeeper income represents payments received/receivable from the government in response to the ongoing novel coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. JobKeeper income is recognised as income, in accordance with AASB 1058, at fair value when there is a reasonable assurance that the Company has complied with the requirements of the JobKeeper payment scheme and that the assistance will be received, if not yet received by reporting date.

Donations, bequests and fundraising

Donations and revenue generated from fundraising activities are recognised in the Statement of Profit or loss and Other Comprehensive Income when received.

Bequests from deceased estates are recognised in the Statement of Profit or Loss and Other Comprehensive Income when received.

Services of volunteers

A number of volunteers, including Directors and members of committees, donate an amount of their time to the activities of OC Connections and also supported OC Connections by participating and raising funds. However, as no objective basis exists for recording and assigning market values to these volunteer services, they are not reflected in the financial statements as either revenues or expenses.

Nature and timing of satisfaction of performance obligations

The following table provides information about the nature and timing of income recognition.

Income stream	Nature and timing of income recognition
Members' contributions, donations and bequests, fundraising activities and JobKeeper income	Revenue is recognised upon receipt.
Grants	Unconditional government grants are recognised in the Statement of Profit or Loss and Other Comprehensive Income when they become receivable.

Accounting policy for cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

	852,341	1,183,026

Accounting policy for trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any allowance for expected credit losses. Trade receivables are generally due for settlement within 30 days.

The Company has applied the simplified approach to measuring expected credit losses, which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance. To measure the expected credit losses, trade receivables have been grouped based on days overdue.

Other receivables are recognised at amortised cost, less any allowance for expected credit losses.

Note 10. Contract assets

	2023	2022
	$	$
Current assets
Contract assets	650,232	731,021

Accounting policy for contract assets

Contract assets are recognised when the Company has transferred goods or services to the customer but where the Company is yet to establish an unconditional right to consideration. Contract assets are treated as financial assets for impairment purposes.

	7,369,288	7,410,442

The listed shares have been valued based on their quoted market prices in active markets. The unlisted units have been valued based on the present value of net cash inflows from expected future dividends and subsequent disposal of the shares.

Accounting policy for other financial assets

Other financial assets are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs are included as part of the initial measurement, except for financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. Such assets are subsequently measured at either amortised cost or fair value depending on their classification. Classification is determined based on both the business model within which such assets are held and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial asset unless an accounting mismatch is being avoided.

Financial assets are de recognised when the rights to receive cash flows have expired or have been transferred and the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership. When there is no reasonable expectation of recovering part or all of a financial asset, it's carrying value is written off.

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost only if both of the following conditions are met: (i) it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and (ii) the contractual terms of the financial asset represent contractual cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest.

Financial assets not measured at amortised cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. Typically, such financial assets will be either: (i) held for trading, where they are acquired for the purpose of selling in the short-term with an intention of making a profit, or a derivative; or (ii) designated as such upon initial recognition where permitted. Fair value movements are recognised in profit or loss.

The Company commissioned Mark Murray FAPI, Director of O'Brien's Valuers & Property Consultants to assess the market value of the properties owned by the Company in May 2021. The accumulated market value of the properties held by the Company, excluding right-of-use assets, based on the valuations performed totalled $32,405,000, which has not been recognised in the financial statements.

Accounting policy for property, plant and equipment

Plant and equipment is stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis to write off the net cost of each item of property, plant and equipment (excluding land) over their expected useful lives as follows:

Owned buildings and building improvements	20 - 30 years
Leased buildings (right-of-use assets)	Shorter of lease period and 8 - 17 years
Furniture and equipment	4 - 10 years
Motor vehicles	5 years

The residual values, useful lives and depreciation methods are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each reporting date.

An item of property, plant and equipment is de recognised upon disposal or when there is no future economic benefit to the Company. Gains and losses between the carrying amount and the disposal proceeds are taken to profit or loss.

Leased buildings (right-of-use assets)

The Company leases certain buildings for its operations under agreements with various lease periods with, in some cases, options to extend. The leases have various escalation clauses. On renewal, the terms of the leases are renegotiated.

A right-of-use asset is recognised at the commencement date of a lease. The right-of-use asset is measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability, adjusted for, as applicable, any lease payments made at or before the commencement date net of any lease incentives received, any initial direct costs incurred, and, except where included in the cost of inventories, an estimate of costs expected to be incurred for dismantling and removing the underlying asset, and restoring the site or asset.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the unexpired period of the lease or the estimated useful life of the asset, whichever is the shorter. Where the Company expects to obtain ownership of the leased asset at the end of the lease term, the depreciation is over its estimated useful life. Right-of-use assets are subject to impairment or adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

The Company has elected not to recognise a right-of-use asset and corresponding lease liability for short-term leases with terms of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets. Lease payments on these assets are expensed to profit or loss as incurred.

The properties at 26 Salisbury Rd Ashwood, 7 Gooyong Rd Chadstone and 52 View St Clayton are subject to lease arrangements with external parties. The leases for all three properties are covered under a collaborative agreement which commenced 1 March 2022 and has a 5-year term with the ability to extend. The terms of the lease arrangements place restrictions on the use of the premises by the Company. The rental charge for each lease is $nil. The Company has elected, in accordance with AASB 16 Leases and AASB 1058 Income from Not-for-profit entities, to recognise the value of the right of use asset and corresponding lease liability under the lease arrangements at cost, being $nil.

Accounting policy for trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Company prior to the end of the financial year and which are unpaid. Due to their short-term nature, they are measured at amortised cost and are not discounted. The amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within 30 days of recognition.

One to five years	116,067	185,668
	176,731	257,644

Accounting policy for lease liabilities

A lease liability is recognised at the commencement date of a lease. The lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments to be made over the term of the lease, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, the Company's incremental borrowing rate. Lease payments comprise of fixed payments less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees, exercise price of a purchase option when the exercise of the option is reasonably certain to occur, and any anticipated termination penalties. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

Lease liabilities are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The carrying amounts are remeasured if there is a change in the following: future lease payments arising from a change in an index or a rate used; residual guarantee; lease term; certainty of a purchase option and termination penalties. When a lease liability is remeasured, an adjustment is made to the corresponding right-of use asset, or to profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is fully written down.

Non-current liabilities

Accounting policy for employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits, annual leave and long service leave expected to be settled wholly within 12 months of the reporting date are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled.

Other long-term employee benefits

The liability for employee benefits not expected to be settled within 12 months of the reporting date are measured at the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date using the projected unit credit method. Consideration is given to expected future wage and salary levels, experience of employee departures and periods of service. Expected future payments are discounted using market yields at the reporting date on high quality corporate bonds with terms to maturity and currency that match, as closely as possible, the estimated future cash outflows.

Defined contribution superannuation expense

Contributions to defined contribution superannuation plans are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

Note 18. Reserves

The fundraising reserve comprises unspent tied donations transferred from the net operating surplus and set aside for the purpose of expenditure on items specifically related to benefiting participants and following the OC Connections documented approval and reporting process for such expenditure.

The specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA) reserve comprises SDA income which has not yet been expended on property repairs and maintenance. This income is a contribution from the NDIA towards the maintenance of community living houses and which was received by OC Connections for the first time in financial year ended 30 June 2019.

Note 19. Contingent liabilities

In prior financial years, the Company received interest-free loans from Singleton Equity Housing and Director of Housing. The loans are repayable in the event that the Company sells 23 Atkinson Street, Chadstone. This property is an integral part of the Company's operations and, as a result, the Directors have no intention to dispose of the property. It is therefore not probable that a future sacrifice of economic benefits will be required. In the event of the sale of the property, the formula that would be used to calculate the amount repayable is based on the sales price and a valuation made by the Valuer-General.

In return for financial support provided for previous redevelopment works, the Department of Health and Human Services holds the following deeds of charges over properties owned by the Company:

- 28 Delia Street, South Oakleigh, entitling it to 56.84% of any proceeds from the sale of that property; and
- 13 George Street, Ashwood, entitling it to 54.9% of any proceeds from the sale of that property.

The Delia and George Street properties are an integral part of the Company's operations and, as a result, the Directors have no intention to dispose of the property. It is therefore not probable that a future sacrifice of economic benefits will be required.

At the date of signing these financial statements, the Directors are not aware of any other contingent liabilities of the Company.
